Education. Victorians are a long-suffering people Their endurance is truly wonderful, They can submit with a greater degree of patience to mis-rule than any other people on this coast. Yet they take more bolidays than any community elsewhere They meet their rulers, both civic and colonial, at all the pleasure gatherings, and have an agreeable time; but they have never succeeded in getting either popular expectation. Take the question of education. There is not a public school or free school, under the direct control of the government, in this city In August last, the doors of the city Free Schools were closed, and have not were formerly educated in public schools, either roam at large or attend private agols, of which, happily, we have a greater number now, that would be considered good schools, than at any former time. The only salvation of the rising generation is the private school teacher.

The City Council, who are the Local Board, seems to have really forgotten individual affairs under the notice of a public to whom they bave but little interest, A. B. Gray takes pleasure in calling attention to the receipt of his annual supply of Fall Dry Goods, specially selected for this market, just received. An inspection of his stock is invited, which will be found to comprise all that education is one of their duties : and that the community expects them to most recent Fancy Novelties.—Government takethe initiative in education. The dif. ficulty that occurred in September, by the resignation of the teachers, ought to Coffee over the present. The first lives in a have been cured long ago. If such an event had occurred in many places on the English-speaking portion of this coutinent, a voluntary tax would have been levied, and submitted to by the citizens rather than keep the Free Schools closed a day. Our City Fathers, however, seem to be starched too stiffly to get out of the machine way of carrying on a government,—no matter how small. money could have been raised to keep open the city schools, if a well-digested, well-directed and earnest attempt had been made by the City Fathers to get it. For four months, however, the chief city of British Columbia has had its school doors closed, without an attempt having been made to re-open them. What doors closed, without an attempt having been made to re-open them. What does it really mean? To us it is incomprehensible. One might have supposed that education would have had the preference to road-gravelling,—

It doubtless MRS. RIDGWAY has removed her Private will be said that the corporate charter, like Boarding flouse from View street to the the School Ordinance, is defective, and the house formerly occupied by Mr McNiff, Broad money cannot be raised under it. Supposing that to be the case, we see no good reason why the General Government could not have been induced to take the responsibility of guaranteeing the payment of a petty loan to keep the

Fathers, except, possibly, to collect

Everywhere through the city yesterday there was but one feeling of disgust at the column of stuff published in that day's issue of the Colonist. The whole thing was perfectly transparent. Not having a single fact to offsett anything that we had said on Tuesday, and thoroughly convinced that in our yesterday's issue we would disprove all its "shameful mis-statements,' it had to anticipate our reply by resort to down-right abuse. If the writers of the Colonist don't know the difference between abuse and argument, between falsehood and truth, the public do,-and they formed a very just estimate of it when they contemptuously referred to it yesterday. Our justification was satisfactory to the publie; but our cotemporary's column o abuse was everywhere recognised as such. Satisfied that we are in accord with public opinion, we have no intention of wasting our space upon the concern in question. We will, however, passingly allude to two or three points in the column of abuse in question. Mr. Higgins, it said, contracted with the Telegraph Company in January, 1870. Now, it was either in February or early in March, that Mr. Lamb first promised to supply Mr. DeCosmos on the same terms as the Colonist. So, Saanich Poultry Market, point of time, the transactions are of nearly even date. But the public spirit of Mr. Higgins in getting the telegraph retained is highly amusing. He telegraph retained is highly amusing. He paid only $15 or $17 per week before, so he raised the amount to $25 per week, a raise of $8 a week. Really we don't know who to thank most, Mr. Higgins for incurring the enormous expense of $8 extra and only supplying the public with two or three inches of telegrams per day.—or the Telegraph Company for perday,—or the Telegraph Company for incurring a heavy responsibility for a series of years for the Colonist subsidy. We feel highly amused at Mr. Higgins' success, for as a matter of course the parison with his sabsidy. We are deeply thankful, so are the public. The Colosies makes an allusion to the increase of telegrams; but fails to show that its in-tention was not to crush out the STAND-ARD. We have some letters that we may publish on that subject if necessary. The allegation that the STANDARD refased to speak favorably of a charitable performance unless an advertisement was put in its columns is without a shadow of foundation. We challenge the Colonist to name the individual to whom the refusal was made by Mr. DeCosmos, With respect to Mr. DeCosmos wishing to have two tri-weeklies instead of one poor daily, it is true; but it is not true that he wished to "fleece" the public. Strange to say, however, Mr. Lamb informed the proprietor of the STANDARD that Mr. Higgins had told him some months back that no proposition had been made to run two tri-weeklies. What a fine memory somebody has. ne general or civic governments up to Queer, is it not, how singularly memory is restored, -but sometimes a little distorted to suit the purpose of its owner. The Colonist don't enjoy very rugged health now; and we presume that chesi affections more or less affect the brain. This may account for its articles of yerterday and the day before. We have been opened since. The children who only one suggestion more to offer it is that we hope our contemporary will hereafter prefer fact and argument to misrepresentation and abnec MEVADA. Vincinia, Dec 21—The Cole Company, yesterday afternoon, drifted into the end of the Nevada tunnel, which tapped the water formerly flowing from the Cole-Roller skating rink soon to be opened here. There is ice in Carson river, six inches think. Owing to this and low water, most of the mills on the river have suspended operations.

EASTERN STATES.

Washington, Dec 22—The Senate, to-day, confirmed the nomination of Robert C. Schenck, to be Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of the United States to Great Britain.

Sumner's speech, to-day, on the Dominician matter, was very bitter. He referred to the indignation with which the rumor has been received, that Bismarck would treat with Napoleon for peace, as a pretext for over-riding the Republic of France.

EUROPE. LONDON, Dec 21-Karl Granville to-day issued an invitation to a conference. The lan-guage of the note is so framed that the conterence, although ostensibly called to settle the eastern question, may also consider the Luxemburg difficulty, and the proposed ces-sian of Alsace and Lorraine. Berlin, Dec 20—In an address to the dep-

NEW YORK, Dec. 22—The Moniteur pub-lishes a circular from the Prefects of Departments in the interior, contradicting the ramors of troubles at Paris on the 19th. The news is favorable; no excitement since the 3d.

The Journal Official publishes a report of the Government of State Provinces, which is favorable.

The Paris journals say that the Prussians use explosive bullets.

Advices from Orleans state that the Prussians grossly insulted Don Panloup. They also treated the inhabitants with inhumanity.

During the short occupation of Blois, they committed no excesses. It is officially announced that Gambetta-goes to review the army of Lyons. He has left Rouen.

It is reported that the Prussians expected to receive provisions at Dieppe, from England, but a close watch of the French cruisers prevented it.

It is reported that the Prussians occupy Tours, Chancy, and Marns, where they received reinforcements and batteries. Recent engagements are favorable to the French. The troops are well equipped and continue coming in. The cavalry and artillery raised by Bordeaux are ready to march.

Trochu having shown to the Prussian officers who were prisoners, ample provisions and munitions at Paris, sent them back to The citizens of Bordeaux having requested the suppression of reactionary journals, the Government answers that it decrees to treat them with silent coutempt.

Garibaldi having been offered a sword of honor, refuses to accept it until the end of the war.

Later dispatches from Versailles say there is no indication of a decisive engagement in France until after the holidays. Large numbers of Prussian officers are returning home on furlough.

Skirmishing continues faintly along the lines, but there has been more casualties rom foraging than from battles.

service, and extensive warlike preparation have been made at Kertich. The Austrian official organ says the Em-peror declares that the Russian repudiation of the treaty of Legations requires a guaran-tee against future modifications.

MAGIC SOAP.

Directions for Using Robinson's Magic Soa for doing a Large Fumily Washing in Two Hours, of Five or Siz Dozen Pieces Hours, of Five or Siz Dozen Pieces

1. Cut up fine a bar of the Soap, and put one-ha of it into your boiler with sufficient water to cover your white clothes to be washed, and let the Soap dissolve; then put your clothes in, stirring them, and let them just come to a boil; then pour out clothes and water into a tub and let them soak twenty or thi ty minutes, stirring them round in the tub occasionally to loosen the dirt. Such articles as collars, wristlands or any ar icle very dirty, should be rubbed through the hands a little while soaking in order to thoroughly loosen the dirt before boiling.

2. While your clothes are soaking put the other half of your cut Soap into your boiler, with sufficient clean water to boil, and let it be heating. After your clothes have soaked wring them ont well and put into your boiling water, and let boil from 5 to 10 minutes; then riuse, blue and hang out to dry. If the above directions are followed, we will guarantee your clothes clean and white.

3. For your colored and woollen clothes use the same water you soaked and boil your white clothes with, only heating it up again, and pour it over your colored and woollen clothes, and let soak the same as your white clothes, also rubbing them through your hands while soaking, if very dirty. Then rinse in clear water, warm a your hands will bear, and you will thus accomplish a large washing in two hours.

By cutting up a bar of this Soap into two gallons water, and let boil until thoroughly dissalved, and then lesve to cool, you will have two gallons of beautiful SOFT SOAP, as good as Common Soap for general house pur posses.
